People Empowering People with Disabilities in Westchester County for 30+ Years!

Westchester Disabled on the Move, Inc. (WDOMI) will be partnering with the WNBA Liberty basketball team, to celebrate the 28TH anniversary of the Americans With Disabilities Act:

NEW YORK LIBERTY HEALTH and FITNESS DAY! Saturday August 4th 2018 3pm
Westchester County Center 198 Central Ave, White Plains NY 10606

WNBA Liberty is the latest exciting addition to Westchester County sports and has traditionally promoted disability awareness. Deputy County Executive Ken Jenkins will be the keynote speaker and will introduce the innovative dancers ZCO Dance Project. The theme of the day is “Health and Fitness” and these passionate performers bring health and fitness to life while integrating their disability into dance. This partnership is a great opportunity for WDOMI to empower people with disabilities and to tell them “ROCK YOUR DISABILITY”.

For every ticket purchased through the link <https://Fevo.me/wdom>, WDOMI gets a $5 donation. Visit the WDOMI table in the main concourse before the game for information on our wide range of services and giveaways including T-shirts.
